The Gerald L. Ignace Indian Health Center's

RED SHAWL GALA

Celebrating 50 years of Native health in Milwaukee

The Gerald L. Ignace Indian Health Center grew out of an awareness in the 1970s of the poor health of Milwaukee's Native American community. We provide comprehensive and culturally sensitive health care for the whole family. Tradition reminds us that in order to heal, every part of a human being must be addressed: The mind, body, spirit, and emotions. Our team strives to improve the essential health, peace and well-being of those that reside in the metropolitan Milwaukee area.
